

Body Corporate Management & Secretarial Services

APL is one of New Zealand's most experienced Body Corporate Managers and one of the few companies offering specialist Secretarial Services for shared ownership developments. With a substantial client base APL is unique in its ability to provide total professional property services to unit title owners as well as being able to respond to the special requirements of absentee owners and the integration of investment owners with community living.

Why Choose APL?

Expert Practical Advice backed by a Wealth of Experience:

Skilled in all aspects of Body Corporate management and administration, APL offers the advantage of an unrivalled breadth and depth of property management experience, including a sound working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory framework surrounding property ownership. We not only provide our clients with impartial and totally professional resolution of issues but also complete assurance of compliance with legal obligations.

Approachability, Reliability and Accountability:

APL is renowned for friendly service, prompt communication and personal attention to our clients' needs. Each property we manage has its own dedicated and experienced Property Manager who takes full responsibility for service delivery and maintains frequent contact – ensuring the lines of communication are kept open at all times.
